Native of Willoughby retires with 42 years of military service

NASHVILLE - Col. Robert J. Angus, a native of Willoughby now residing in Clarksville, Tennessee, recently retired from the military after a combined 42 years of service in the U.S. Army and the Tennessee Army National Guard.

Col. Angus was on active duty from 1966-1972, serving one tour of duty in Vietnam and two years in Germany. His last seven years were on active duty with the Tennessee National Guard as Logistics officer for the Counterdrug Task Force in Smyrna, Tenn.

His awards and decorations include: the Legion of Merit, Tennessee National Guard Distinguished Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal and Army Achievement Medal.

Angus is a native of Willoughby, Ohio, and graduated from Willoughby South High School in 1964. He later graduated from Austin Peay State University in Clarksville with a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice, an associate degree in Business Management and an associate degree in Police Science.

He is married to the former Glenda Martin of Clarksville. They have two children, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
