Tennessee National Guard Military Police Company Prepares to Deploy

NASHVILLE – Tennessee Army National Guard Soldiers from the 269th Military Police Company, based in Murfreesboro, are scheduled to leave Monday, January 6, in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Members of the unit are scheduled to depart at approximately 8:30 a.m. from the National Guard Armory on 2350 Armory Drive in Murfreesboro for one month of training at Fort Bliss, Texas prior to heading to their deployed location.

More than 28,000 Tennessee Army and Air National Guardsmen have deployed since Sept. 11, 2001.

Family, friends and media are encouraged to attend the event.

NOTE: Departure times subject to last-minute change. In the event of any changes, there will be a media advisory.
