NSLDS STUDENT ACCESS

National Student Loan Data System

Retrieve Your Loan Information

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's (ED's) central database for student aid. NSLDS receives data from schools, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan program, and other Department of ED programs. NSLDS Student Access provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and grants so that recipients of Title IV Aid can access and inquire about their Title IV loans and/or grant data.

Do You Want 128-bit Encryption?

You may be using a browser that does not support 128-bit encryption. When configuring your browser, you may choose to use 40-bit, 56-bit, or 128-bit encryption to protect your information. If you choose to use 40-bit or 56-bit, your account information will still be secure, but if you want the strongest encryption available on the Internet, you will need a browser that is capable of encryption at 128 bits such as Microsoft Internet Explorer 6.x. You can download this browser by going to the link below. If you have difficulties or questions, please consult our Browser Information page.

NSLDS is a repository of information from many sources. Changes to the data are made by those sources. Collecting the data into one central location such as NSLDS gives you convenience and saves you time. If for any reason you disagree with the information reported to NSLDS, please contact one or more of the sources of your data listed on the detail pages on this site. The Department is also available as a resource at 1-800-4FEDAID if you need additional assistance. Your comments and corrections will help improve the services NSLDS provides.

What is your social security number?
Please enter this number without the dashes. For example, 123456789.

What are the first two (2) letters of your last name?

What is your date of birth?
Please enter this date in "mmddyyyy" format. For example, 08171975 for August 17, 1975.

What is your PIN?
Please enter the PIN you received from Department of Education.

Input the information required

Since your PIN can be used to retrieve personal information about you and to sign documents, including a promissory note, you must not share or disclose the PIN to others. By using your PIN, you agree that it has not been compromised – no one besides you knows it. If you think your PIN has been compromised, you should change it at the Department of Education PIN Registration Web site using the option "Change PIN".

You will be prompted to re-enter the information on this page after 15 minutes of inactivity.

Information contained on these pages reflects the most current data in the NSLDS database. The data contained on this site is for general information purposes and should not be used to determine eligibility, loan payoffs, overpayment status, or tax reporting. Please consult the Financial Aid Officer at your school or the specific holder of your debts for further information.

Website Directions

First (and easiest) is for you to log onto this website www.nslds.ed.gov. This site has all your federally guaranteed student loan current information. You need a PIN number to log on. You already set the PIN number when you first applied for a federal loan (try the same one you use for all your 4-digit PINs).

You can reset your PIN at www.pin.ed.gov. Click on “Request A Duplicate PIN”. Answer the three questions (SSN, Name, Birth date). The next screen requires you enter your challenge answer (Mother’s maiden name, elementary school, etc...) Submit request again. Then it allows you to chose method of delivery of your PIN. Select “On Screen”. Your PIN is displayed. Go back to the www.nslds.ed.gov site and re-enter your PIN.

The first page lists all your loans. Click on each individual loan (green number in front of loan). Print this page. Do the same for all your loans
