SECTION II - NARRATIVE

(Write a narrative explaining the applicant's leadership qualities, character, experience, and special expertise that uniquely qualify him or her to serve as a future warrant officer.)

NARRATIVE:

SSC
I strongly recommend [REDACTED] for appointment as a Warrant Officer in the 920A MOS, Property Book Officer. I have observed [REDACTED] over the past several months and during that time he has consistently impressed me with both his technical and tactical skills as well as leadership ability.

SSC
[REDACTED] is currently performing as the Supply Technician in the Squadron. In this function he interacts with soldiers in an enthusiastic and patient manner to ensure they completely understand the service that he is providing. [REDACTED] also acquires all the civilian required skills with his profession as a Property Book Officer which demonstrates the experience needed in my organization. [REDACTED] is a full time technician as serves as the Property Book Officer for a Combined Support Maintenance Shop and this would help further his career as well as benefit the Squadron. [REDACTED] consistently displays the level of competence and abilities expected and attributed with Warrant Officers.

SSC
[REDACTED] will truly benefit the Army by serving as a Property Book Officer for many reasons. He has performed and demonstrated the correct skills and proven experience for the MOS. What really sets him apart is his determination to succeed. [REDACTED] constantly challenges himself to work for knowledge and support this Squadron. I am fully confident that he will represent the Tennessee Army National Guard and the Warrant Officer Corps superbly. (1)

SECTION II - NARRATIVE

(Write a narrative explaining the applicant's leadership qualities, character, experience, and special expertise that uniquely qualify him or her to serve as a future warrant officer.)

NARRATIVE:

SSG [REDACTED] in becoming a Warrant Officer in the field of 920A series MOS. After working with him on several occasions it is my opinion that he would make an excellent candidate for the Quartermaster Corps as a Property Book Officer. I have experienced his work ethics, personality, motivation and professionalism with an excellent review in all areas. His evaluation reports reflect that he is more than capable of handling all duties assigned to him.

SSG [REDACTED] worked for me from June 2007 to December 2014 as a Supply Technician and as the Property Book Officer. His work has always been above standards and is always conscientious of the safety program.

I feel that with SSG [REDACTED] experience and knowledge he will be a great asset to the Tennessee Army National Guard and to his unit. If I can be any further assistance in this process I can be reached at [REDACTED] (1)
